The Wanamaker Store

Half-Told Tales

UNKNOWN friends write us daily about our advertising. Their suggestions are not only welcome,—they are prized. We regret the frequent pseudonym that stands between our correspondent and our thanks.

An Anonyma of last week protests against our devoting Saturdays to men's bargains. A hint for which much thanks, and a text on which this lesson:—

Do not confuse the day's story with the day's offers. Our news does not tell one-half (and with every day tells less and less) of what is going on. The day's story may be devoted largely to men's goods, but not by any means the day's economies.

The scope and "grip" of the store are extending and strengthening so fast, through your multiplying and extending favor, that the mercantile results have long since passed beyond the daily limits of newspaper space. We must frequently discriminate in our advertising, but in our merchandising, never.

The news to-day is largely for men, but there are bargains for everybody;—come and find.

Men's Bicycle Suits

A very good assortment of ten and fifteen dollar bicycle suits for Five Dollars each. A remarkable offer, concerning some really excellent suits,—that is, suits that would be excellent values at the $10 and $15 marks.

At this writing we can fit almost anybody, and the assortments are in pretty good shape. Cannot promise for after to-day.

Men's Mackintoshes, $2.95

If you haven't a mackintosh, the best advice we have given you in weeks lies in this sentence,—See these. Each would be a good matter-of-fact value at $5. Tan coats, mostly, plaid back, well made, ventilated and cut to fit comfortably. Two-Ninety-five.

Men's Scarfs at 25c.

Fifty cent goods easily. We don't need to say much more about them, except to repeat that we will sell them for 25c. each. Silks are rich and fine, colors and patterns are for now. Heaps to choose from,—heaps literally.

Men's Night Shirts

We call them fifty-cent values, and we know about such things. We sell them at 35c., because standard values in most lines are merely marks for us to shoot at. We have in this case successfully performed the feat of shooting almost a third off the price without touching the quality.

Men's $1 and $1.50 Gloves, at 75c.

There are quite as many $1.50 sorts as $1 sorts. It's a lot rather varied as to makes and styles, but they're all good.

Seventy-five cents a pair, and you can safely choose with your eyes shut so far as concerns everything but size.

Men's Furnishing Store, Ninth street.

Men's Clothing

When you are in the Clothing Store we shall take it as a favor if you will ask to be shown the black cheviot sack suit, lined throughout with pure silk, that we are offering at $13.50.

If you are looking for a suit at about this price, the favor shown us in inspecting this will unquestionably be enhanced by your promptly buying it. Few resist it,—it's too good and too cheap.

Men's Spring Overcoats

The combination of the new styles and our prices is proving as attractive as we anticipated.

At $10 in black or Oxford worsted; Italian cloth lined; satin sleeves. At $12 in silk lined, light color covert cloth. At $12 in black rough-faced cheviot, silk lined. At $15 in black unfinished worsted; silk lined and faced to edge; tailored the same as the custom tailor does it; the exclusive clothier would ask you $22.50 for it. At $15 in a light color worsted; silk lined throughout; a $20 coat. At $20 in black rough-faced cheviot, silk lined and faced to edge; tailored the best. Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Women's Gloves at 65c.

Another chance, and we don't know where the next is coming from. From present appearances, the last opportunity.

A fine, soft, pliable, handsome glove, in tans, mode, browns, grays, black and white. Nearly five thousand pairs at Sixty-five Cents a Pair.

We give up the Tenth Street aisle, first floor, to their selling.
